

Amendment to the General Agreement for Rendering Banking Services to Individuals

According to the present document, “General Agreement For Rendering Banking Services to Individuals” posted at the web-page www.pashabank.ge shall be amended, in particular, clause 15.4.2¹ shall be added to the agreement and be formulated as follows:

“15.4.2¹ In case the Client has the outstanding payment or any other type of unfulfilled obligation in regard the Bank as a result of the legal relationship under present agreement or any other credit or non-credit agreements related to the present agreement, the Client confirms that the Bank is authorized to provide the information on the obligations and/or outstanding payments of the Client to any third persons who were mentioned as related persons to him/her by any application submitted to the Bank (included and not limited to family members, contact persons and etc.). Furthermore, the Client authorizes the Bank to collect and process any information related to the Clients location and/or contact information from the persons indicated in the present clause or from any third parties, who provide payments and/or makes transaction in favor of the Client.”

Amendments set forth in the present document are effective from 16th of June 2021.